

Presents the Strategic Leadership Series

A law enforcement training series on personal & inter-relational leadership skills.

This 10-session series focuses on providing tools to create a highly effective leader who not only accomplishes goals efficiently, but also knows how to motivate and guide others to personal and professional excellence.

Program Objectives:

- Become a better leader by learning how to live healthy lives emotionally, intellectually and physically.
- Learn how to generate the best performance from peers and subordinates.
- Create a shared culture of Servant Leadership, high productivity, respect and motivation.
- Develop a clear understanding of the particular strengths that each member of the department has to determine where one best benefits the institution.

Series Schedule:

Feb 9	Self-Knowledge and Transformation	Jul 13	Five Practices of Leaders
Mar 9	Self-knowledge and Work Efficacy	Aug 10	The Power of Leading From the Bottom
Apr 13	Emotional Foundations of Leadership	Sep 14	Transformational Conversations
May 11	Behavioral Foundations of Leadership	Oct 12	Foresight & Goal Setting
Jun 8	Aligning Personal & Organizational Values	Nov 9	Community Forum & Graduation

Sessions are 8:00 a.m. – noon, 2nd Tuesday of each month, at the Vestavia Hills Police Department.

Register for one or all 10 sessions. Participants who complete all 10 will receive a diploma in Strategic Leadership and are eligible to participate in advanced leadership training.

Individual Session $50

10-Session Series $400

All sessions qualify for APOST credits.

To register, go to bluewatchfoundation.org/strategicleadershipseries

Questions? Email us at info@bluewatchfoundation.org

This series will be led by Dr. Manuel Zarate and guest lecturers. Dr. Zarate holds a PhD in Organizational Leadership and Entrepreneurship from Regent University. He has traveled the world serving individuals and organizations in the private, academia, entertainment, government, military and law enforcement sectors. Dr. Zarate resides with his family in Hoover and amongst many endeavors is a Reserve Deputy and Chaplain with the Jefferson County Sheriff Office.

Deadline to Register is February 1. Register Today!
Seating is limited – Maximum class is 30 participants